Bookouture, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. Rory closed her eyes. Think with your head. Your heart can't be trusted. Life is not a fairytale. Rory doesn't believe in love. She's got far too many real problems to deal with. She's just bought a tumbledown house. Her mother is generally behaving like a wicked witch, insisting on calling her Aurora, and generally interfering in her (admittedly pitiful lack of) love life. And her 16-year-old daughter has finally grown out of Disney princesses and discovered dating. But Rory's adamant that she doesn't need saving. In fact, the only thing she's wishing on a star for is a bit of practical help. However, when she meets a builder whose name is John Prince and who seems to be in the habit of rescuing her (right down to finding her lost shoe one evening) she might have to face a truth as uncomfortable as hobbling home barefoot - that maybe there's something enchanted in the air. Her mother, daughter and friends are convinced her prince has come, but Rory just wishes everyone could let it go. Especially when she hears a story that makes her question whether he is really the hero everyone thinks he is. A hilarious, romantic love story about mothers, daughters and how on earth to find Prince Charming, for fans of Sophie Kinsella, Marian Keyes and Cecelia Ahern. What readers are saying about Emma Robinson: 'I laughed out loud on the bus at this book . Well written, funny and most of all compassionate. a much-needed dose of humanity and humour .
